Gentlemen

On April 1st I mailed you $1<sup>00</sup><sup>4/9</sup> for Catalogue of the sale to take place
April 27th to 29th and printed price list to be mailed after the sale.
Have not received the Catalogue and as I expect to leave April 12th to be gone 15 days I am afraid my chance of bidding at sale is gone. I hoped to get catalogue in time to forward bids before leaving.

Yours truly, C. L. Griswold

J. H. <sup>and</sup> Chapman
Philadelphia
Gentlemen

Please cancel the first bid sheet I sent you and substitute
the one enclosed.

I have left out a number of the lots first bid on, raised my bids on others and added
a few new ones.

If the cows you mention in your letter of the 23<sup>d</sup> bring the prices you anticipate it will certainly establish a new record.

for high prices, at least as far as I am able to judge from sale catalogues at hand.

It must certainly be an error if No 1370 - "Cent of 1824 Very fine" brings from $8. to $20. as you say. I should have liked to have had this lot at a fair price but did not know it was worth over $2.50 at the most.

I trust that from this corrected list sheet you will be able to secure at least an amount on which the commission will pay you for your trouble.

Yours Truly

I wish to bid on enclosed list at your sale of July 7th and 8th as I will hardly have time to make an extended search through all my sale Catalogues could you assist me by noting on enclosed slip what would be a fair bid on the lots I have enumerated. Kindly return it at once as the time is short. Your package just at hand I will look it over and return all I do not keep either this evening or tomorrow.

PEORIA, ILL.

Peoria, Ill., July 1, 1904.

Messrs. S. H. & H. Chapman, Philadelphia, Pa.

Gentlemen:

I have returned today by American Express the package of coins you sent me on approval. Out of them I have kept the following:

No. 12	Price 25¢
14	50¢
15	25¢
20	20¢
21	15¢
23	35¢
24	25¢

30	20¢
31	25¢
32	10¢
34	20¢
44	4.00
45	3.00

Making a total of $9.90, for which I enclose New York draft to your order.

The 1794 half dollar "Fine" was priced by you at $12.50 I think, which was more than I felt like paying for it. At the "Mills" sale, a similar coin in same condition only brought $6.00. I should have kept No. 7 on your list, half dollar of 1795, "Very Fine" if price had not been over $5.00, and No. 48 on your list the "British Settlement Kentucky" token, if price had not been over $15.00; but I did not feel justified in paying what you asked for these two latter coins, although they may be worth it.

Trusting the returned package may come safely to hand, I remain,

Yours very truly,

A. L. Griswold

THE POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY, (INCORPORATED)

transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.
